Record date

The Record Date is the determining factor to attend the AGM and to exercise voting rights during that meeting. In accordance with article 27 paragraph 4 of the articles of association of the Company, shareholders and holders of global depositary receipts who were shareholder or holder of global depositary receipts on Tuesday 7 May 2013 (the Record Date), have the right to attend the meeting and to exercise their voting rights in accordance with the number of shares or depositary receipts for shares they hold at the Record Date and for which they are registered in one of the registers mentioned herein.

Notice of registration

Shareholders and holders of rights of usufruct and pledge with voting rights who are registered in the shareholders' register of the Company on the Record Date, who wish to attend the AGM and vote in person must notify the Company in writing, no later than Tuesday 28 May 2013 (the Registration Date), by submitting a statement that it wishes to attend the meeting including the number of shares notified for registration and held by the relevant shareholder at the Record Date. The shareholder will receive confirmation of the notification for the meeting, which will serve as admission certificate and upon submission thereof prior to the AGM, the shareholder or its proxy, as applicable, will be given access to the meeting.

Holders of global depositary receipts

The holders of global depositary receipts on the Record Date are entitled to give voting instructions to the Depositary by completing, signing and timely returning to the Depositary the relevant voting documentation provided by the Depositary (the GDR Proxy Card). The deadline for providing a GDR Proxy Card to the Depositary will be specified by the Depositary in the information provided to holders of global depositary receipts. Upon the timely receipt from an eligible holder of global depositary receipts of voting instructions in the manner specified by the Depositary, the Depositary shall endeavour, insofar as practicable and permitted under applicable law, the provisions of the Deposit Agreement governing such global depositary receipts, the Company's Articles of Association and the provisions of or governing the shares, to vote or cause to be voted the shares represented by such holder's global depositary receipts in accordance with such instructions.

Alternatively, eligible holders of global depositary receipts wishing to attend the AGM and vote in person thereat may do so by timely completing an investor certification that is certified by the broker, dealer or other nominee with whom the eligible holder of global depositary receipts maintains such global depositary receipts and delivering the same to the Depositary. Upon timely receipt of a properly completed certification, in any case no later than the day before the Registration Date, and compliance with any other Depositary requirements, the Depositary will arrange for a proxy to be issued for the AGM, which so long as such holder has provided a copy of such proxy on or prior to the Registration Date to the Company, will serve as an admission certificate and upon submission thereof prior to the AGM, will be given access to the meeting. The holder of global depositary receipts must provide sufficient proof of identification on admission to the AGM. In addition, if the exclusive proxy has been granted by the nominee of the Depositary to a holder of global depositary receipts which is a legal entity, the person who represents such legal entity at the AGM must provide sufficient proof that he is duly authorised to do so by means of a statement from a local lawyer or notary admitted to practice in the jurisdiction of the holder of global depositary receipts, duly executed and legalised in accordance with the laws of such jurisdiction.

Holders of global depository receipts should note that the Board would welcome their attendance at the AGM. The attendance of members of the Board at the meeting depends on whether any holder of global depository receipts, to whom a proxy has been granted, has notified the Company in writing by the Registration Date of his intention to attend the AGM. If no notice is received, the Chairman of the Board may further to consultation of the Board invite an individual outside the Board to act as chairman of the meeting.

The shareholder must ensure that the proxy is duly completed and signed, including as appropriate, voting instructions to be received no later than the Registration Date.
